

[EN] How-to Download Whole Netlabel Catalogues With Few Clicks: The Ultimate Guide / Example 3: Earth Mantra

Introduction

Did you ever wish to download tons of gigabytes of netlabel stuff in a painless way? Ok, this guide is for you 😊

I will show you all the coolest tricks to download whole netlabel catalogues with just some clicks 😊 This guide will show you the basics of this art using one netlabel for episode 😊 This is necessary, because every netlabel website has a different structure, so I will show you the most common cases you could stumble upon.

What do you need to follow this guide?

- Mozilla Firefox browser
- DownThemAll extension

Before proceeding with this guide, please install all the listed software. Let's go!

Example 3: Earth Mantra netlabel

At the moment, Earth Mantra netlabel has got 104 releases in its catalogue but we don't really want to download all of them manually one by one like primitives, RIGHT? 😊 I guess you need some hours just to put in your download manager queue all of them by hand 😊 But we are smart and we are going to download the whole catalogue in a bunch of minutes!

1. Go to Releases Page and analyze the situation: clicking on some random releases, you will notice that all the download links follow the same url and filename schema:

We are lucky 😊

2. Right click on the background and select DownThemAll, then click on the Insert New URL button (first button top left):

Add the following special url in the field (1):

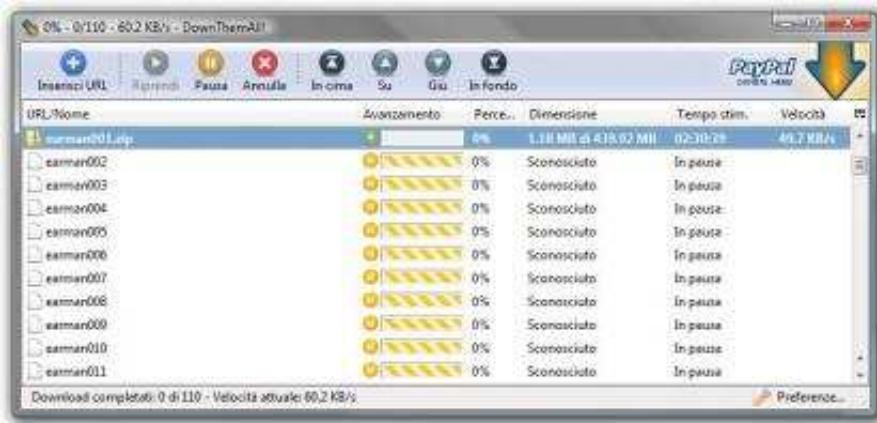

[http://www.archive.org/compress/earman\[001:104:1\]](http://www.archive.org/compress/earman[001:104:1])

add the destination folder path in the field (2) and click button (3) to start downloading or (4) to put the files in queue;

3. When you click buttons (3) or (4) a warning popup will appear: click on Batch button:

4. Automagically, the whole catalogue of Earth Mantra releases is ready to be downloaded 😊

Simple, isn't? 😊

When the download of all the releases is ended, you will get a folder with 104 ZIPs inside.

Ok, now you have got tons of free and legal music to listen to 😊 Have a happy netaudio! 😊
